6. Meet the asset level test adopted by the local assessing unit, Example attached in exhibit A. also included with application.
7. Meet the federal poverty guideline published in the prior calendar year in the Federal Register by the United State Department of Health and Human Services. This yearly publication of income guidelines will be printed and available with the application.

Full or Partial Poverty Exemption per PA 253 of 2020 MCL 211.7u(5) states that if a person claiming the poverty exemption meets all eligibility requirement, the Board of Review shall grant the poverty exemption, in whole or in parts, as follows:

- a. A full exemption equal to a 100% reduction in taxable value for the year in which the exemption is granted; or
- b. A partial exemption equal to a 75% reduction in taxable value for the year in which the exemption is granted.
- c. A partial exemption equal to a 50% reduction in taxable value for the year in which the exemption is granted; or
- d. A partial exemption equal to a 25% reduction in taxable value for the year in which the exemption is granted.

No other method of calculating taxable value may be utilized, except for those percentage reductions specifically authorized in statute, or any other percentage approved by the State Tax Commission.

To request a poverty exemption, a taxpayer must file:

- d. Form 5737 Application for MCL 211.7u Poverty Exemption
- e. Form 5739 Affirmation of Ownership and Occupancy to Remain Exempt by Reason of Poverty
- f. All required additional documentation (such as federal/state income tax returns) Forms 5737 and 5739. along with any additional documentation, must be filed with the local assessing unit where the property is located. These forms do not get filed with the Department of Treasury or the State Tax Commission. The forms may be submitted to the local assessing unit on or after January 1 but before the day prior to the exemption is requested.

The Board of review shall approve or deny the request for the property exemption. The Board of Review is required to follow the policy and guidelines adopted by the local assessing unit granting or denying a poverty exemption. The Board of Review is not permitted to deviate from the adopted policy and guidelines. Poverty exemption application can be heard at the March, July, or December Board of Review. However, there can only be one Board of Review decision already made that year. For example: if an application is denied at the March Board of review, it may not be reheard by July or December Board of Review during the same calendar year. The taxpayer must file an appeal of the March Board of Review to the Michigan Tax Tribunal.

Poverty Exemption Affidavit

This form is issued under authority of Public Act 206 of 1893, MCL 211.7u

INSTRUCTIONS: When completed, this document must accompany a taxpayer's Application for Poverty Exemption filed with the supervisor or the board of review of the local unit where the property is located. MCL 211.7u provides for a whole or partial property tax exemption on the principal residence of an owner of the property by reason of poverty and the inability to contribute toward the public charges. MCL 211.7u(2)(b) requires proof of eligibility for the exemption be provided to the board of review by supplying copies of federal and state income tax returns for all persons residing in the principal residence, including property tax credit returns, or by filing an affidavit for all persons residing in the residence who were not required to file federal or state income tax returns for the current or preceding tax year.

I, _____, swear and affirm by my signature below that I reside in the principal residence that is the subject of this Application for Poverty Exemption and that for the current tax year and the preceding tax year, I was not required to file a federal or state income tax return.

Address of Principal Residence: _____

Signature of Person Making Affidavit

Date

Federal Poverty Guidelines Used in Determination Of Poverty Exemptions for 2024

Size of Family Unit	Poverty Guidelines
1	$14,580
2	$19,720
3	$24,860
4	$30,000
5	$35,140
6	$40,280
7	$45,420
8	$50,560
For each additional person	$5,140

Note: MCL 211.7u states that the poverty exemption guidelines established by the governing body of the local assessing unit shall also include an asset level test. An asset test means the amount of cash, fixed assets or other property that could be used, or converted to cash for use in the payment of property taxes. The asset test should calculate a maximum amount permitted and all other assets above that amount should be considered as available. Please see STC Bulletin 3 of 2021 for more information on poverty exemptions.

Note: MCL u 211.7 changed the requirements for filing documentation in support of a poverty exemption to allow an affidavit (Treasury Form 4988) to be filed for all persons residing in the residence who were not required to file federal or state income tax returns in the current year or in the immediately preceding year. This does include the owner of the property who is filing for the exemption.

C. Sales Studies

Equalization study dates are as follows for 2024 equalization:

Two Year Study: April 1, two years prior through March 31, current year

Single Year Study: October 1, preceding year through September 30, current year

For 2023 studies for 2024 equalization the dates are as follows:

Two Year Study: April 1, 2024 through March 31, 2023

Single Year Study: October 1, 2022 through September 30, 2023

Note that the time period revisions apply to all equalization studies, that is: sales ratio studies, land value studies and economic condition factor studies for appraisals. Also note that the revised time period for two year studies applies to all property classifications.

D. Property Classification

The State Tax Commission reminds assessors that classification is to be determined annually and is based upon the use of the property And Not highest and best use of the property. The Commission is aware that some assessors are still classifying according to highest and best use and/ or are not classifying property on an annual basis. The Commission asks that all assessors take the necessary steps to ensure that all real and personal property is properly classified according to MCL 211.34c.
